Amanda Maciel Antunes	Autopsicografia	August 26, 12pm - 10pm	Autopsicografia* (Portuguese) is a performance/installation piece by artist Amanda Maciel Antunes, telling the story of adapting to a new language and thought. Thinking is a language that doesn't make the distinction of a matter of course and in this narrative the artist explores these allegedly distinct parts of nature with doubts in its incision. During its course the artist concedes, interferes and changes her reality by meddling with her seemingly instinctive area of perception and culture camouflage; gradually speaking to an audience (physical or in a cloud) that her boundaries on a spectrum are universal constants of the human race.	300 S Anderson St 90033	Downtown LA	Solo Exhibition Performance	amandamacielantunes.com
Ashma Champagne, LAAA	Open Studio	August 11 & 12 12pm - 6pm	Emerging ink painter Ashma Champagne will be conducting a live sumi ink painting demonstration adjacent the Brewery Art Colony showcasing his unique iteration of Chinese impressionism and exhibiting his original artwork salon style, covering the exterior surface of his mobile studio.	731-761 Moulton Av 90031	Downtown LA	Open Studio	onestoneart.com

Dylan Turner	Open studio	August 1-12, 6pm - sunset	My studio is a lower level to a house designed by architect Richard Lindt. The work is oriented towards the light as it sets in towards an orange glow around eight pm. I'd like to show etching oil text painting with ephemeral sculpture and parts of the old wood fragments which are part of this house but have been left. The feeling evoked during sunset is one of vast sublime history while the content of the text painting is attempting to make sense of Vast disorienting information in an accelerated history.	1809 Lucile Ave 90026	Silver Lake	Open Studio

Elena Roznovan	Extro/Introspection	August 12, 1-3pm	Extro/Introspection  The work deconstructs the idea of performance through an immersive event that will blur the boundaries between the audience and the performer. Via a GoPro that the performer will wear, the audience will be directly implicated in the spectacle. The GoPro footage then will be juxtaposed with the video of the performer that will be live-streamed and projected within a fixed environment. However the performer will be free to perform independent of the confines of the location of the projection. In this way the dancer becomes a conduit of engagement instead of being the subject of entertainment.	3320 Civic Center Drive 90503	Torrance	Performance	Instagram @erznovan @bradfordchindance

			Finishing Concepts is proud to present SPACIAL/RECOGNITION, the inaugural exhibit in the gallery space at their workshop. We invite the community to come experience the newly renovated space. The opening reception will be held on August 26th beginning at 1pm and is free to the public. SPACIAL/RECOGNITION was collectively curated by Julian Lombardi, Stephanie Sherwood and Surge Wintron. "We shape our buildings; thereafter they shape us." -Winston Churchill For the first exhibit in the new gallery space at Finishing Concepts in Monterey Park, each artwork directly responds to the architecture. SPACIAL/RECOGNITION focuses on the exploration of non-traditional spaces. Each piece addresses this concept in an exploratory fashion, whether it is by challenging the traditional constraints of the rectangle, inhabiting three-dimensional space, or presenting the exploration of inner space in a profound manner. Many artists have expressed how changes to their studio space can directly affect the outcome of their work, sometimes architecture can direct us in unseen ways.

Moon Pillars and Fire Falls	Moon Pillars and Fire Falls	August 18, 7pm - 10pm	Moon Pillars and Fire Falls is a group show proposed by LA based artists Anna Tanner and Isabel Theselius at the artist run space Blue Roof Studios, located in South LA, on August 18th from 7-10 pm.	7329 S Broadway 90003	South Central	Group Exhibition	bluroofstudios.org
			Moon Pillars and Fire Falls explores the way that light influences the imagination through its illusionary and material presence. The ephemeral nature of light allows for a sense of discovery and play that our invited artist will consider.
			Blue Roof Studios is a former community church that has been transformed into artiststudios and an exhibition/event space. Its beautiful auditorium and large parking lot will be the setting for the artist of Moon Pillars and Fire Falls.
			This one evening event will take place on Friday August 18th with LA based artists Sarah Bostwick, Nathaniel Cummings Lambert, Isabel Theselius, Anna Tanner, Patricia Valencia and Emmett Walsh. Artworks will be displayed throughout the space, the parking lot of Blue Roof Studios will be transformed with sculpture and hanging works using the evening backdrop and videos will be screened inside the auditorium.
Nicole Rademacher	Origin Stories	Workshop: August 6, 3pm - 5pm & August 26, 7pm - 10pm ; Exhibition open M-F 11am - 5pm, during workshops, and by appointment	18th Street Arts Center proudly presents an evolving exhibition in conjunction with a series of storytelling workshops by LA-based artist Nicole Rademacher and invited guests in our Atrium Gallery. Originally designed to empower adopted and fostered people to create and record their unique histories, the workshops are being opened up to artists, particularly artists who feel marginalized. These are part of a larger series that Rademacher has done nationally. The first workshop at 18th Street will inaugurate the exhibition. It will take place on Wednesday, July 12 at 1pm during our community potluck.	1639 18th Street, Atrium Gallery 90404	Santa Monica	Workshop + Exhibition	nicolerademacher.com

			This exhibition is being staged in response to the potential threat to the funding of the National Endowment for the Arts. We have invited some of the leading Curators in SoCal to each select an artist/artists group that they feel reflect upon the projects title, Why Art Matters. These artists have shown, via their myriad practices, some of the engaged and often profound reasons that Art has been an essential ingredient to the building of civilizations throughout history. Culture is important and Art is a cornerstone of Culture. It mirrors our concerns and interests and it is the greatest example, alongside Science, of the curiosity that has helped Humanity get where it is, in its finest moments. The Artists: Chaz Bojorquez, Beatriz Cortez with Rafa Esparza, Finishing School, Arshia Haq, Kenyatta AC Hinkle, Linda Pollack, Henry Taylor, Glen Wilson, Liat Yossifor The Curators are: Dan Cameron, Emily Gonzalez-Jarrett, Kio Griffith, Nancy Meyer, Kristina Newhouse, Paul Schimmel, Max Presneill, Tyler Stallings, Catherine Taft

Velaslavasay Panorama	Effulgence of the North	August 4 - August 27, 12pm - 6pm	The Velaslavasay Panorama embodies several domains of visual phenomena: A Traditional 360-degree Panorama, Lobby & Ancillary Salon Exhibits and Gardens of the Illustrious Pacific Ring.	1122 W. 24th St 90007	Downtown LA West Adams	Group Exhibition	panoramaonview.org
			The Velaslavasay Panorama presents to the public Effulgence of the North - a 360-degree painted panorama that explores the limitless horizon beyond a frigid terrain, illuminated by the ethereal Aurora Borealis. The panorama includes an ongoing 35-minute cycle of subtly shifting light and sound, enhancing the immersive experience and drawing the visitor into a sublime illusory excursion to the mystical Frozen North.
			A visit to our arctic panorama is complimented by a stroll through The Velaslavasay Garden and Grounds, featuring lush tropical plantings, a wide variety of succulents, a misting and meditation grotto, and a copper-roofed gazebo for reading and reflection. Reminiscent of the great 19th-century pleasure gardens, our Grounds provide welcome respite from the everyday cares of the world.
Vincent Pocsik	Open Studio	August 11, 11:00am - 6pm	We also welcome you to visit the Nova Tuskhut, an Arctic Trading Post complete with a mini diorama of the tundra, polar artifacts including snowshoes from the Peary Expedition, and the flying goggles of an Arctic Bush-Pilot. West is West	The Sun, the Moon, and the Stars Sleep Beneath the Earth - Opening Reception	August 26, 29, & 31, 7pm - 10pm and by appt.	Our collective's intention is to use the MaidenLA platform to expand the audience for our installation—an abstracted form of sculpture and theater in Chinatown's project space, Townhall. Our installation will consist of constructing an interactive set for a theater production depicting Earth's mythic origin story. We will play with abstracting both myth and the constructs of a theatrical set and performance. The viewer's interaction with the otherwise empty set will activate the space. In this "play" the audience will take on the appropriate role of human, investigating and negotiating with the contemplation of earth's origins.	818 N Spring St, #101 90012	Chinatown	Collective Installation	pagesilverman.com, sarahsmileystudio.com
